Re: United States of America v. Kern, et al.
Civil Case No: 2:18-cv-000283-JAD-PAL

Dear Sir/Madam:

We are writing you because you previously mailed [merge field—money/bearer instrument/personal item and specific amount of remission] in response to a letter claiming you were entitled to receive a cash prize. We are returning your [merge field—money/bearer instrument/personal item and specific amount of remission].

The United States Department of Justice (DOJ) has filed civil charges against Patricia Kern; Advanced Allocation System, Inc.; Distribution Reporting Center, Inc.; Global Data Funding, Inc.; Marketing Image Direct, Inc.; Montgomery Marketing, Inc. LLC.; North American Disbursement Agency, Inc.; Pacific Allocation Systems, Inc.; Special Money Managers, Inc.; All American Awards, Inc.; Golden Products Service, Inc.; Edgar Del Rio; NSD Products, Inc.; Sean O'Connor; Epifanio Castro; New Generation Graphics, Inc.; Andrea Burrow; Stephen Fennell; and Neptune Data Services, Inc. The case, filed in the District of Nevada, alleged that the defendants conducted a scheme to defraud consumers through the mail. Specifically, DOJ alleged that the defendants solicited payments from consumers by sending letters representing that the recipient was entitled to receive a large cash prize or other valuable prize in return for a payment in the range of $20 to $30. DOJ alleged that these representations were fraudulent and that consumers who sent in payments did not receive the promised cash or prizes. The letters were sent in the names of multiple different companies and individuals.

On February 20, 2018, the United States District Court made a determination that DOJ could likely succeed in proving that defendants were engaging in a fraudulent scheme.

On [redacted] 2018, the District Court entered a permanent injunction against the defendants, prohibiting them from mailing advertisements representing that a consumer is entitled to receive a prize in return for a payment. This injunction also requires the U.S. Postal Inspection Service to return to consumers any currency or bearer instruments (such as money orders or travelers checks). Enclosed, please find the [merge field—money/bearer instrument and specific amount of remission] that was able to be identified as belonging specifically to you.

Should you have any questions about this notice, please contact Sabrina Holmes with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at (202) 616-5634. For more information, visit [insert URL for press release website.]
